Itinerary Tour

Day 1: Lao Chai – Ta Van – Ban Ho – Thanh Phu

Begin the 15km ride today with Lao Chai Village as the first destination – the most beautiful valley in Sapa, situated in the valley of Muong Hoa. Next, go see the rustic, simplicity, and elegance of Ta Van Village's local houses. Then the desolate Supan where only 4 small hamlets of the Black H'Mong and Red Zao inhabited, where you can freely enjoy nature without being bothered by any crowds of tourists.

Stop for a short break before making it to Ban Ho Village, an immense and flat valley fringed by towering mountains and hills, home to the Tay ethnic. There you will reach the Lavie Waterfall. Keep riding for 6-7 hours from Ban Ho, we arrive in Thanh Phu Village, an outstanding tribe village in the lowlands of Sapa District that offers fabulous sceneries. Relish a hearty dinner in a local house and have a tight sleep on a cozy stilt house in the village.

Day 2: Thanh Phu – Sin Chai – Ta Thang – Sapa

Spring out of bed and chow down on delightful breakfast cooked by the host. Ready to ride for 10km today. Start the 2nd day with a visit to Sin Chai Village for one of the best view spots in Sapa after leaving Thanh Phu. Up to now, the neglected village can still remain full of traditional customs and habits of the Red Dao ethnic minority. That makes Sin Chai a place not to be passed by in Sapa with the impressive natural setting and the astonishing view of Fansipan Mount.

After lunch, make our way to Ta Thang Village of Tay ethnic minority. The place always welcomes you with the hospitality given by the locals, particularly the kids who might be your companions in this journey. Take the last ride back to Sapa on the flat road. End of a life-enriching motorbike trip to hill tribe villages in Sapa.
